

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 13, 2020

Media Contact

Alexandra Hayes

Senior Director, Communications

484-888-4412 | ahayes@consumered.org

HCPA Meets with Labor Secretary Eugene Scalia To Discuss Industry Operations Amid COVID-19 Pandemic

Washington D.C. – The Household & Commercial Products Association (HCPA) participated in a call today with Labor Secretary Eugene Scalia to discuss how the household and commercial products industry is navigating the COVID-19 pandemic.

“Today’s call was extremely productive and demonstrates the Department of Labor’s commitment to assisting American businesses and workers during this national emergency,” said HCPA President & CEO Steve Caldeira. “We appreciate Secretary Scalia’s interest in the current status of the household and commercial products industry, and assured him that our member companies, who make the cleaning and EPA-approved disinfecting products that can be used against COVID-19, are following CDC guidelines. We look forward to continuing our collaboration with Secretary Scalia and the Department of Labor to ensure that employees are protected during this unprecedented time.”

###

About HCPA

The Household & Commercial Products Association (HCPA) is the premier trade association representing companies that manufacture and sell $180 billion annually of familiar and trusted products used for cleaning, protecting, maintaining, and disinfecting homes and commercial environments. HCPA member companies employ 200,000 people in the U.S. whose work helps consumers and workers to create cleaner, healthier and more productive lives.